ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Perspective

A ditch digger drained of all energy asks for one more shovelful.

A painter watches all those drops of paint,
hoping that they will cover the wall.

A poor man drained of all self-respect
asks for a dollar to feed himself, While a rich man watches all those stocks,
hoping it will cover the cost of his new car.

They are all people wanting to make it up the next step of the ladder;
Each step is different,
some big and some small,
Important for some, unimportant for others,
as each man has a different ladder,
to climb up the stairway of life.
