Whose Law?

You walk up to a parking meter,

You deposit your dime,

but if you're not back in an hour;

You, sir, have just broken the law.

Man's Law.

You're out walking the streets,

and you see someone who needs a hand,

and you don't stop to offer it;

You, sir, have just broken the law,

God's Law.

Man's law goes by fear of punishment;

God's law goes by love and caring.
